Intercos Group's statement on recent Trade Union unrest

Agrate Brianza (MB), June 6th, 2024 - Intercos communicates, with reference to the Trade Union unrest held today, which originates from the termination of the subcontracting relationship with one of its Suppliers as of the date of 30.06.24, that these initiatives are completely unmotivated in light of the position taken by the Company.

At this regard, as already communicated to the competent Trade Union Representatives, Intercos - despite the absence of any legal obligation - has made itself available to hire on a voluntary basis the entirety of the approximately 50 workers employed by the aforementioned Supplier, at its production site in Romanengo.

Intercos offered to:

- 1) guarantee the contractual and economic conditions set forth in the "CCNL Multiservizi" (National Collective Labor Agreement "Multiservizi") applied by virtue of the Union Agreement already in force;
- 2) guarantee a daily shuttle service between the current production site and the new one, at no cost to them; and
- 3) propose an alignment of the economic conditions to be applied to the new labor relations, with those currently applied in the labor relationship with the aforementioned Supplier.

Therefore, Intercos observes with extreme disappointment the position taken by one single Trade Union that is compromising the prospects of job stability of the Supplier's employees, fueling a climate of unjustified dissatisfaction in field where Intercos Group has always guaranteed high levels of employment.

We are keen to note that Intercos Group - since its foundation - has always rigorously applied in every field, and especially in the labor law field, all the pro tempore applicable regulations with a continuous commitment and respect for both its employees and Suppliers.
