Brembo Executive Chairman Matteo Tiraboschi stated: "The results for the first nine months of 2024 show the strong resilience achieved by the Group thanks to its medium-long term strategy, against an automotive industry that is facing severe difficulties at global level. We maintained revenues and EBITDA in line with the already positive same period of 2023, also thanks to the good performance of the aftermarket. Brembo continues to invest, despite a macroeconomic context that remains significantly complex. We announced the acquisition — the largest in the Group's history — of Öhlins, the global leading manufacturer of suspension technology. This industrial investment will strengthen Brembo's positioning on the market to provide integrated intelligent solutions to our customers."
