Object:

Consequences in respect of Certificates issued by BNP Paribas Arbitrage Issuance B.V. and SecurAsset S.A. due to an Extraordinary Event affecting the shares of Pirelli & C (Isin: IT0004623051)

Text:

A Tender Offer has been made on Pirelli & C stock by the bidder Marco Polo Industrial Holding. Pursuant Borsa Italiana Notice n° 15291, the necessary condition for the termination and payment of all the options and futures contracts on common stocks Pirelli & C open at the end of the 13th October was the overtaking of more than 90% of the shares by the bidder within the closing of the 13th October 2015. Given the definitive results of the Tender Offer at the closing of the 13th October 2015, the bidder got overall the 84,800% of the corporation stock of the Pirelli & C.

Consequently, the terms to accept the Tender Offer have been reopened for a further five days Open Stock Exchange period, namely the 21, 22, 23, 26, and 27 October 2015 (the “Riapertura dei Termini dell’Offerta Obbligatoria”).

As reported by Borsa Italiana Notice n° 17107, necessary condition for the termination and payment of all the options and futures contracts on common stocks Pirelli & C open at the end of the 27th October was the overtaking of more than 90% of the corporation stock by the bidder within the closing of the 27th October 2015, after the closing of the “Riapertura dei Termini dell’Offerta Obbligatoria” period.

Following the Tender Offer, together with the overtaking of more than 90% of the corporation stock by the bidder, pursuant Borsa Italiana Notice n° 17811 released on the 27th October 2015, BNP Paribas Arbitrage Issuance B.V. and SecurAsset S.A. (“The Issuer”),

intend to

- early redeem the Bonus Cap Certificates on Pirelli & C (Isin: NL0010399796 and NL0010728010). The early redemption value will be computed using the “Theoretical Fair Value” (TFV) methodology, pursuant the Borsa Italiana Notice n° 15291 released on the 9th September 2015.
