Text

TRADING OF EQUITY SECURITIES OF COMPANIES WITH REGISTERED OFFICE IN SWITZERLAND

On 30 June 2019 ends the EU recognition of equivalence of Swiss venues for MiFID purposes.

In the absence of an extension of EU recognition of equivalence, it is possible that the Swiss authorities will no longer allow trading in Swiss stocks on those EU venues.

In the above scenario from July 1st 2019 EuroTLX will suspend and then remove from trading the following securities traded on the multilateral trading facility EuroTLX:

It is understood that further shares of companies with registered office in Switzerland, however listed on EuroTLX market, but not mentioned in the above list, will not be suspended as they fall under specific exemptions expressly provided for by the Swiss Federal Council's measure (for example, because listed on the Italian markets before the 30th November 2018, with the explicit consent of the issuer) or as excluded from the scope of the measure (for example, because they are not traded on Swiss stock exchanges).
